

Religion Chapter 20 Study Guide

Pages 295-304

Test Date:

- The Liturgy of the Hours unites members of the Church everyone.
- Catholics pray the Liturgy of the Hours at certain times of the day and night.
- In the Liturgy of the Hours, Christians praise, thank, and petition God.
- Liturgy of the Hours is made up of psalms, readings, prayers, and songs,
- When we pray through the day, we become peacemakers.
- Zacchaeus promised to pay back four times what he owed.
- Zacchaeus was sorry for being unjust.
- Jesus calls all people to be peacemakers.
- Pope John Paul II, the Traveling Pope, was a messenger of peace.
- Many people thought Zacchaeus cheated and kept their tax money.
- A peacemaker is a person who treats others fairly.
- Liturgy of the Hours is the Church's prayer for certain times of the day and night.
- Pope John Paul II wanted everyone to live in peace and justice.
- We can find words to pray for peace in the Bible.
- At the Last Supper, Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."
- Know two things we can do to work for justice and be a peacemaker.

Example: Treat all people with respect; forgive one another; pray.