

Test Date:

English Unit 6 Study Guide
Pages 214-229

- Students will have to write a subject pronoun to replace the underlined noun in a sentence.
 - Example: The hamster ate sunflower seeds.
It ate sunflower seeds.
- Students will have to underline the correct verb to go with a given pronoun.
 - Example: She (jump, jumps) high.
- Students will have to write an object pronoun to replace the underlined part of each sentence.
 - Example: Abby baked cookies for Tom.
Abby baked cookies for him.
- Students will have to choose the correct use of I and me in a sentence.
 - Example: (Robin and I, Robin and me) like cake.
- Students will have to write a possessive pronoun to replace the underlined word.
 - Example: the cat's toy its toy
- Students will have to write a contraction for the underlined words in a sentence.
 - Example: She will come to my house.
She'll come to my house.
- Students will have to complete sentences using there, they're, or their.